Dearest Mom & Pop:

Well, I got a couple of letters from you today, and sure am glad you are all getting about fine. I-w

I wrote you this morning, but don't have anything to do this afternoon, so thought I would write again.

My Aunt Josephine, or Roswell's Robert, on a bicycle yesterday, had a serious bangup. Entirely excuseable '. No mistake! It sure sounds intriging, not going in none. Ask Charlie to investigate it on Nationallife. Still, it 'xonerates Dave. Answer "Yes, Sir".

But I guess everything will come out alright in the end. Let me know the outcome. Right?

Sure hope it stops raining a little whilethis afternoon, as I want to wash some clothes.

Be good, and write soon.

Love,
Harold
